Co-working space by JR EAST

CROSSLINK

~CONNECTING SINGAPORE UNIVERSITY STUDENTS AND JAPANESE COMPANIES~

Dear Students

Greetings from One&Co! One&Co is a co-working space by JR East located in Tanjong Pagar. We are excited to present to you CrossLink, an event aimed to connect local university students with Japanese companies in Singapore.

At One&Co, we hope to contribute to new possibilities in global business by acting as a bridge between Singapore university students who have an interest in Japanese companies, and Japanese companies that want to understand local needs, culture and values.

Objectives

- 1) Provide opportunities for students to network with Japanese companies in Singapore, who are interested in local voices, internships and local employment
- 2) Provide a platform for Japanese companies who may face the language barrier to get to know about the thoughts from local university students

CrossLink Participants

- Students studying in Singapore universities, regardless of year and major
- Students interested in working/ interning at Japanese companies
- Students with Japanese ability (N4 and above) as the event will be held using a mix of Japanese and English

Participation fee

Free

Event Schedule
