

The 6th Korean Language Speech Contest for Foreigners

As part of Korea Festival 2011, the Korean Embassy in Singapore and the Korean Language Centre at the Singapore Korean International School will be jointly organizing the 6th Korean Language Speech Contest for Foreigners on 22 Oct 2011 (Sat). We hope the event will provide an avenue for students of the Korean language to come together and mingle with friends and classmates from other countries.

• Objectives

- To provide an avenue for foreigners to display their talent in the Korean language
- To help foreigners studying the Korean language to become more confident in the language, and motivate them further in their studies
- To provide an avenue for foreigners to participate, regardless of age, educational background, country/culture or profession
- To build up friendship between Koreans and foreigners, and promote self-reflection among Koreans after their encounters with their foreign counterparts
- To promote Korea and a wider use of the Korean language
