

Southeast Asia in Context

FASStrack Summer School 2013

A brief history Southeast Asia in Context

- First taught in NUS in 2006
- An international initiative between NUS and IARU institutions such as Yale University, and University of Copenhagen.
- Context-sensitive education leveraging on Singapore's strategic position

Modules Offered in 2013

- SE2222: Southeast Asia in Context
 - A general introduction to Southeast Asia
 - A interdisciplinary look at themes such as Southeast Asian politics, religion, society and culture
- SE2211: Southeast Asian Social History
 - A long term view of social and economic change in Southeast Asia over 2000 years
 - Fieldtrip to Java and around Singapore
- SE2880A: Southeast Asia's Cultural Mosaic
 - An anthropological view of cultural diversity in Southeast Asia
 - Fieldtrip to Thailand and Cambodia

“Feel Alright!”

- The Fieldtrips
 - Ancient temples in Cambodia, Thailand and Java, Hanging out at mosques and tombs in Java
 - Rice planting, food tasting, music playing, local art classes
 - Martial arts classes in Singapore and Thailand
- The Fieldtrips:
 - <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=JyDEYeRp-m-M>